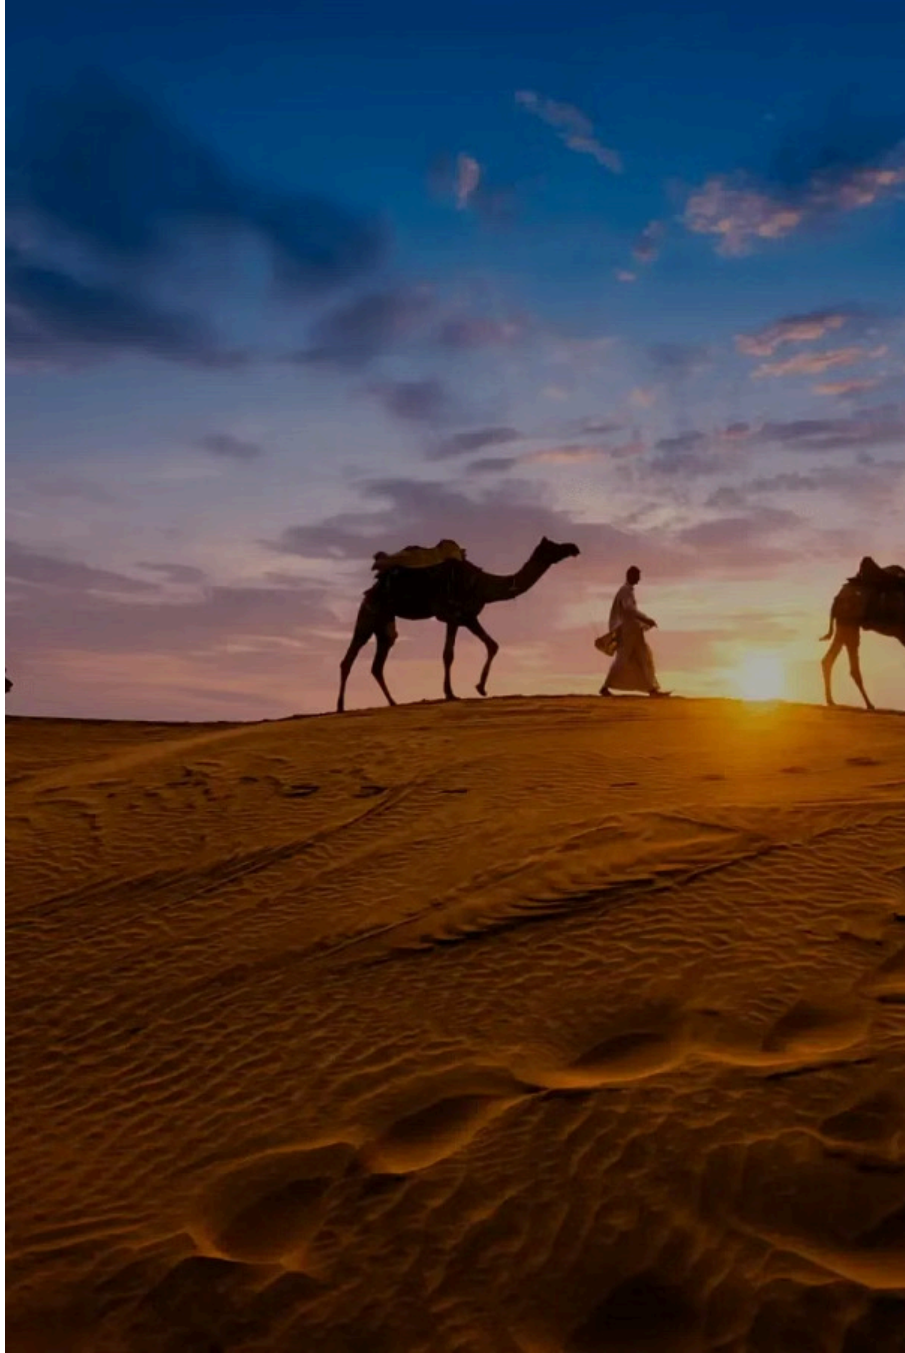
Tourism Development Fund | Transforming Saudi's Travel Investment Landscape

In the heart of the Arabian Peninsula, Saudi Arabia unfurls its tales, ancient and new, beckoning the world to partake in its unfolding narrative. The Tourism Development Fund stands as a beacon, illuminating the path for foreign investments and nurturing the blossoming local sector.



The Challenge

Dance of Diverse Investment Desires

The Tourism Development Fund, established by Royal Decree in June 2020, faced an intricate challenge. Whilst pivotal in spotlighting foreign investment opportunities, TDF needed to romance diverse investor personas across the investment spectrum.

Each stakeholder, from international magnates to local entrepreneurs, brought unique aspirations and investment dreams. The fundamental challenge was crafting a digital realm that resonates with individual investor heartbeats whilst echoing the grandeur of Saudi Arabia's Vision 2030.

01

International Magnates

Seeking large-scale tourism investment opportunities aligned with global hospitality trends and strategic market positioning.

02

Local Entrepreneurs

Passionate about developing authentic Saudi tourism experiences whilst building sustainable local business ventures.

03

Strategic Partners

Looking for collaborative opportunities that blend international expertise with local market knowledge and cultural authenticity.

Centric's Strategic Solution

Centric, inspired by the allure of Saudi's vast deserts and rich heritage, embarked on a transformative digital journey. Through intimate stakeholder dialogues, we delved deep into the heart of Saudi's tourism aspirations, crafting more than a website—an embodiment of investment dreams.

Deep Stakeholder Discovery

Conducted comprehensive interviews with diverse investor personas to understand unique motivations, investment criteria, and decision-making processes across international and local markets.

Adobe Experience Manager Integration

Leveraged AEM as our digital canvas, enabling sophisticated content management and intricate user journey orchestration tailored to individual investor personas and preferences.

Personalised Experience Architecture

Choreographed distinct user pathways for international magnates, local tycoons, and budding entrepreneurs, ensuring each interaction felt authentically Saudi whilst meeting specific investment needs.

Adobe Target Personalisation

Implemented advanced personalisation features, creating bespoke experiences that adapt dynamically to user behaviour, making every interaction feel like a meaningful conversation between trusted partners.
